The Carnival's Decline

The Carnival's Decline

Type: Rumor / Plot Hook

Details

The Witchlight Carnival isn't what it used to be. The mood is darker, some attractions feel off, and the staff seem worried. Mr. Witch and Mr. Light put on brave faces, but something is clearly wrong.

What the Party Has Observed

- The Carnival feels melancholic despite the festive trappings
- Some attractions seem to malfunction or behave strangely
- Staff members whisper about "the way things used to be"
- The connection to the Feywild feels strained

DM Notes

“The Carnival's decline mirrors Prismeer's corruption. As the hags drain Zybilna's power, the Carnival weakens.”
